WEB DEV EXPERIENCE

JUNIOR FRONT-END DEVELOPER | SILKY CODERS (LPP) | 05.2022 – 02.2024

At Silky Coders, I have performed an array of tasks aimed at developing and maintaining complex e-commerce storefronts for all of LPP clothing brands: Sinsay, Reserved, Mohito, Cropp and House.

- Translated designer-provided mock-ups into functional and interactive landing pages, contributing to the company's marketing efforts and user conversion goals.
- Participated in development of a design system; assisted in creating a library of reusable, customizable and unified components available across the development teams.
- Participated in development and implementation of large redesigns of the main product pages with the goal of increasing sales conversion metrics.
- Conducted meticulous code reviews and manual devtesting; identified and resolved visual and functional bugs as well as performance issues.
- Collaborated with specialized teams of UI/UX specialists as well as front- and back-end developers across the company.

PRE-WEB DEV EXPERIENCE

TALENT ADVISOR | INTEL CORPORATION | 03.2020 – 06.2022
RECRUITMENT SOURCER | STATE STREET | 07.2019 – 02.2020
TALENT ACQUISITION SPECIALIST | MANPOWERGROUP SOLUTIONS | 08.2015 – 06.2019

During my previous career in recruitment, I have successfully managed both in-house and outsourced recruitment processes on an international level for many globally renowned companies, including Intel, IBM and Microsoft. I have conducted thousands of interviews with developers and technical experts up to and including C-level professionals, refining a strong communication and relationship management skillset. This work required a strong sense of ownership and exceptional organizational skills while dealing with a high volume of uniquely challenging processes under a considerable time pressure.
